A map of the study area in the Greater Toronto Area. A black triangle in the top left corner points upwards, with the word "NORTH" written below it. The map shows a network of roads, with major roads highlighted in yellow and minor roads in grey. A red square marks the location of the study site, which is situated at the intersection of a major road and a minor road. The map also shows the locations of the three hospitals: St. Michael's Hospital (red square), St. Paul's Hospital (red square), and St. Joseph's Hospital (red square).
