STRUCTURE

Spokane County uses the commissioner form of county government, as do 35 of the 39 Washington State counties. This form of government combines the county legislative and executive authorities and responsibilities in boards of county commissioners.

The Spokane County Board of Commissioners is responsible for providing legislative and administrative services to Spokane County. The purpose of this department is to identify and clarify the needs of the people, and ensure the county responds to those needs. The Board executes all legislative power authorized. These powers include, but are not limited to, adopting and enacting the budget, appropriation of expenditures and setting policy. Other powers are establishing fees and comprehensive use plans and conducting public hearings and meetings.

Spokane County has a number of other elected officials: Assessor, Auditor, Clerk, Prosecuting Attorney, Sheriff, Treasurer as well as both District and Superior Courts.

OVERVIEW

Situated east of the Cascade Range in Washington and on the western slope of the Coeur d'Alene Mountains next to the Idaho-Washington boundary, Spokane County is bordered mostly by township and range lines, except for a small section of the western boundary, where the line is purely arbitrary, and for a 20-mile section of the northern boundary formed by the Spokane River. Spokane County contains 1,764 square miles. It has a maximum length north and south of 54 miles and a maximum width east and west of 36 miles. In point of geographical size, it is the average Washington County, there being 19 counties which are smaller and 19 counties which are larger. In point of age, it is one of the oldest counties, having been created in 1858, but not organized until 1860, only six years after the creation of Washington Territory. Because of its annexation to Stevens County at one time, however, Spokane County was non-existent for 15 years. (Excerpted from Inventory of the County Archives of Washington No. 32 Spokane County, 1941.)

HISTORICAL DATES

- 1858 On January 29, 1858, Spokane County was created by an act passed by the Territorial Assembly.
- 1860 First Spokane County government was really organized. Pinkney City, a small trading post near Colville, was first county seat. On Feb 15, 1860, the county commissioners assembled at Pinkney City and proceeded to locate the first county road Taken from the Stevens County, Auditor's Vault Record, the proceedings read: "Commencing at the ferry on the Columbia River opposite the mouth of Kettle River; running from thence to Peter Currie's, at the foot of the hill as near a strait (sic) line as practicable; thence following the present wagon road, as near as convenient, to Pinkney City; from thence following the government road to the bridge at "old Peers," leaving the present wagon road at, or near, the bridge, and following an old Indian trail bearing to the right and intersecting the old road running up the valley near George Mose's claim; running up the old road as near as practicable to where the old pack trail leaves the wagon toad to cross Mill river; turning to the right; following said pack-trail, or as near to it as convenient to strangers; running from thence along the pack-trail to the Spokane river."
- 1861 Jan 9, 1861 Shoshone County created, taking only a small section of Spokane County.
- 1863 Idaho Territory was created, cutting off two-thirds of Spokane County.

- 1864 Jan 19, 1864, Spokane County was annexed to Stevens County by act of the Territorial Legislature. Colville was the county seat. The reason for retaining the name Stevens County rather than Spokane County when the two counties were combined was due largely to sentiment honoring General Isaac I. Stevens, by naming the county after him. Stevens, the first Territorial Governor of Washington, had volunteered his services to the Union cause in the Civil War, and was killed in action in Sept. 1862 at the Battle of Chantilly.
- 1875 Nov. 5, 1875 Law making Spokane Falls the county seat was passed by the Territorial Assembly but was not enforced. The county commissioners opposed this: "That in the opinion of the majority of the Board of County Commissioners, that the Act of 1875, being an amendment to the Act of 1863, an Act repealed by the Act of 1864, permanently locating the county seat at Colville, and consequently null and void. That amendment of 1875 must be of necessity also null and void, and in consequence the Act of 1864, still remains in full force and effect.
- 1879 Spokane County was again established, after a trip to Olympia by J.N. Glover, known as the 'Father of Spokane".
- 1880 First county seat election was held. Confusion as to the outcome of the election ensued, with the city of Cheney taking the county records in dispute. Cheney remained the county seat for six years.
- 1883 Lincoln County was sub-divided from Spokane County and the present county boundaries were established.
- 1886 County seat was moved to Spokane after a second election.
- 1893 Construction of the present County Courthouse began. Its initial cost was $273,600.
- 1895 All of the county officials moved into quarters in the new courthouse by Nov 20, 1895.
- 1885-99 Twenty-two counties were made out of what was originally Spokane County. Five of these are in Idaho, six in Montana, and eleven in Washington.
- 1946-1953 The Spokane County Courthouse was extensively remodeled in 1946, and a new wing was added in 1956 which cost more than the original building $525,000.

SPOKANE COUNTY COURTHOUSE HISTORY

You might not expect to come upon a castle while visiting Spokane, but that is exactly what you will do if you visit the Spokane County courthouse. Most of us associate such architecture with romantic old castles in Europe, or perhaps something out of the world of Walt Disney or fairy tales. To find such a building in the center of a modern, growing regional hub city such as Spokane is a bit startling.

When the first ground was broken in the fall of 1893, Spokane was still a boomtown that had been suffering from the financial panic of 1893. The project itself was designed in part as a stimulant for a faltering economy in those hard times. At first, there was some bitterness from the initial decision to place the structure on the north bank of the Spokane River. Downtown business owners had hoped to keep the building in the central business district. Residents from the southern and western parts of the county lobbied the county commissioners to select a more rural location. One man even told the Board that if they put the courthouse in Spokane, then those outlying parts would secede and form a new county. There was also harsh criticism that the building itself was an extravagant waste of public funds.

CONTENT FOR COURTHOUSE DESIGN

But the full story of the courthouse began almost a decade earlier when in 1887, Colonel D.P. Jenkins donated the land and $1,000 for the construction of the new county courthouse. But it was not until 1893, when leaky roofs and other problems of the old courthouse became painfully apparent, that the Board of County Commissioners decided to act on Jenkins' offer.

On June 7, 1893, the Board officially opened the design competition for the new structure of "brick and stone or stone as near fireproof as practical to include commodious vaults for records, plumbing, heating, sewerage, closets, and everything necessary for the courthouse and jail to cost no more than $250,000." A prize would be awarded for the most original plan! Prizes were awarded as follows: Winning design 5% of the cost of construction, second prize $500, third prize $300, fourth prize $200.

The architect who submitted the winning design for the courthouse was W. A. Ritchie, then just 29 years old. He never attended a formal school of architecture, having received his initial training from a correspondence course conducted by the superintendent of architecture in the U.S. Treasury Department. Before moving to Spokane, he designed and supervised the construction of public buildings and courthouses in Seattle, Bellingham, Port Townsend, Vancouver and Olympia. He had arrived in Spokane just the year prior to winning the courthouse design competition. Kirtland Cutter, the renowned Spokane architect who designed the Monroe Street Bridge, took second place in the competition.

On August 4 1893, Mr. Ritchie submitted his detailed drawings for the new courthouse and the Board of County Commissioners ordered that notice to contractors be advertised in the Spokane newspapers, giving details of the plans of Mr. Ritchie. From Oct 25th to Oct. 28th, 1893, the commissioners studied submitted bids and finally ordered the contract to be awarded to David B. Fotheringham, and John Keenan was appointed superintendent of construction. Construction began in October 1893, but the building really began to go up the following spring. The brick was manufactured locally by Washington Brick and Lime Manufacturing Company of Spokane. The roof was made from imported slate shingles.

Work was suspended on the courthouse in March 1895 as a quarrel broke out between Ritchie and the superintendent of construction. The commissioners asked Ritchie to resign, he refused, and a grand jury investigated charges of 'Fraud and Swindling' in connection with the courthouse. The jurors concluded: "We have sifted these charges thoroughly, find them untrue, malicious and wicked, having been made by parties who must have known differently, and made for the purpose of misleading the people generally, and this surely and particular. Hard times, prejudice and disappointment must have been at the root of the matter. We find the courthouse to be one of the most substantial and well-built offices in this or any other state, and built in accordance with the plans and specifications, excepting changes that were duly authorized. We find no evidence of boodle or corruption and we believe there has been none." The courthouse was finally completed in November 1895. All county officials had moved into quarters in the new courthouse by Nov. 20, 1895.

A CASTLE IN SPOKANE

The courthouse is said to closely resemble two famous 16th century chateaux in the Loire Valley of France, the Chateaux de Chambord, built in 1519 and the Chateaux d'Azay Le Rideau built in 1516. Many architects through the years have commented on the masterly replica of a 16th century French Renaissance design, its fine lines of style and proportion with regard to the towers and turrets, the sculpture, iron and brickwork which excel in pattern and craftsmanship. Detailed exterior trim such as shell patterns with wreaths and festoons and decorative arches are a few of the outstanding features of its design. The beautiful center tower, now lighted at night, is a masterpiece of detail in itself.

ONGOING CHANGES

Remodeling has been done over the years to meet the growing needs of the county. In 1953, the old Public Health Building on the northwest corner of the courthouse block was razed to clear the way for the present four-story courthouse annex. It was hoped that the annex would take care of the county's needs for the next ten years. The first floor was assigned to the Sheriff's department, the second floor went to the three justices of the peace, the third floor to the county prosecutor, and the fourth floor was unassigned for the time being with no immediate plans. At that time, the courthouse also housed many other departments as well, including Planning, Engineering and Parks and Recreation.

Today, the Spokane County Courthouse houses the offices of the Board of County Commissioners, Assessor, Treasurer, Auditor, Clerk, and Superior Court courtrooms, offices, and support services. The Courthouse Annex houses the Auditor's Motor Vehicle Licensing Office, the Counsel for Defense, and the Superior Court Administrator's Offices. The Sheriff, Prosecutor, and Jail and moved to the Public Safety and Jail buildings north of the Courthouse and Annex. Planning and Engineering are now located in the Public Works Building east of the Courthouse, while Parks and Recreation have offices on Havana next to the County Fair and Expo Center.

Spokane County takes pride in its 'castle' showcase building. Improvements and renovations have occurred over the years to improve both the functionality and efficiency of the building. Windows were replaced recently, which has greatly improved the energy efficiency of the building. At that same time, the outside brickwork was cleaned and re-sealed. The Courthouse is surrounded by manicured lawns, shrubs and trees, wonderfully framing this beautiful historic treasure!

TOWER RENNOVATION

The tower was in need of structural repair highlighted by the flag pole tilting in the fall of 2006. The renovation included; structural repair and repointing of the brickwork, structural repair to the tower roof, complete new slate roof on the tower (original roofing over 100 years old), structural repair to tower decks and deck covers, restoration and repair of decretive terra cotta, and..... replacement of the flag pole.

The project was extremely difficult with the scaffolding needing to go around the entire tower roof but not touch any of the roof. There were areas of the tower that had not been seen or touched since the tower was built, and there were 100 year old construction techniques that had to be learned to assure the repairs were made properly.

Total cost was about $2,000,000 with 50% of the money coming from a state grant from the Department of Archeology and Historic Preservation.

The goal was to make sure the tower would not need any work for another 100 years.

The US Flag was returned to the tower on January 16, 2009 along with a new POW/MIA flag.

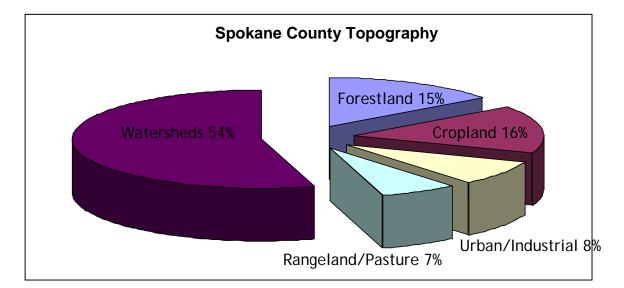

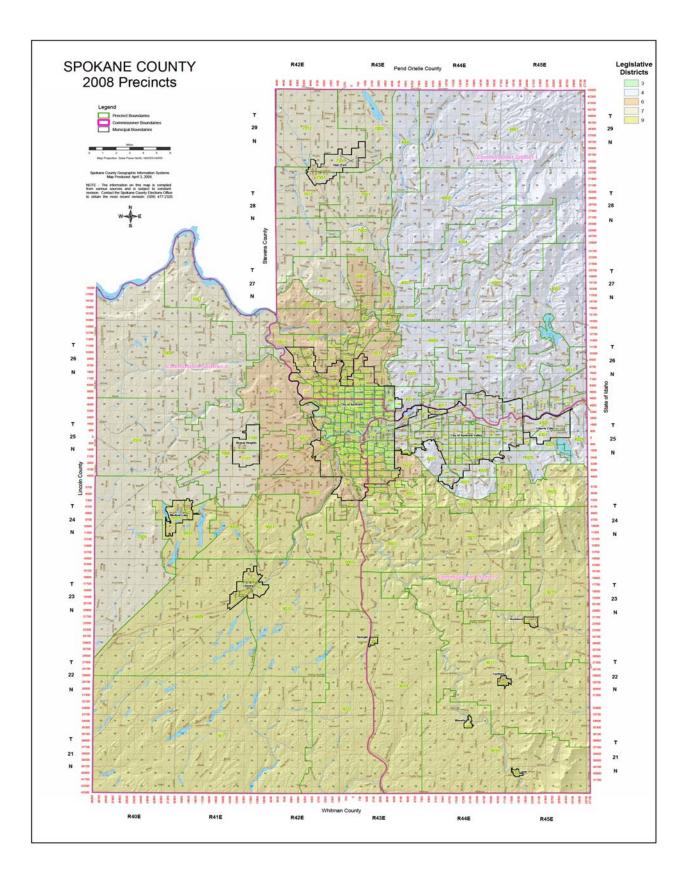

Covering approximately 1764 square miles, Spokane County is located in the Northeastern portion of Washington State. Bordered on the East by the State of Idaho, the North by both Stevens and Pend Oreille Counties, the West by Lincoln, and the South by Whitman.

Approximately 459,000 people live within the County at a median age of 36.96 with an average annual household income of $45,551.

Spokane County boasts a very diverse topography as well as climate, enjoying four distinct seasons. A survey completed in 2008 identifies the County as having the following land areas:

The Spokane County budget is comprised of many funds. A fund is a selfbalancing fiscal and accounting entity, which is segregated for a specific purpose. Following is a brief description of the different fund types.

GENERAL FUND

The General Fund is the largest of Spokane County's funds. The General Fund accounts for all financial resources except those required to be accounted for in a separate fund. The General Fund consists of departments such as the Sheriff, Prosecutor, Auditor, Treasurer, Assessor and Parks. The General Fund is primarily supported by property tax and retail sales tax.

SPECIAL REVENUE FUNDS

Revenue sources that are legally restricted to expenditures for specified purposes are accounted for in Special Revenue Funds. The largest of the special revenue funds is the County Road Fund. Here, gas taxes, and Federal and State grants are specified for new road construction and maintenance of existing roads.

DEBT SERVICE FUND

The resources for and payment of general long-term debt is accounted for in a Debt Service Fund.

CONSTRUCTION FUNDS

Construction Funds account for financial resources to be used for the acquisition or construction of major capital facilities other than those financed by enterprise funds.

ENTERPRISE FUND

Services that are financed and operated in a manner similar to private business enterprises are accounted for in an Enterprise Fund. An example is the Golf Course Fund, where the green fees pay to operate and maintain the facilities.

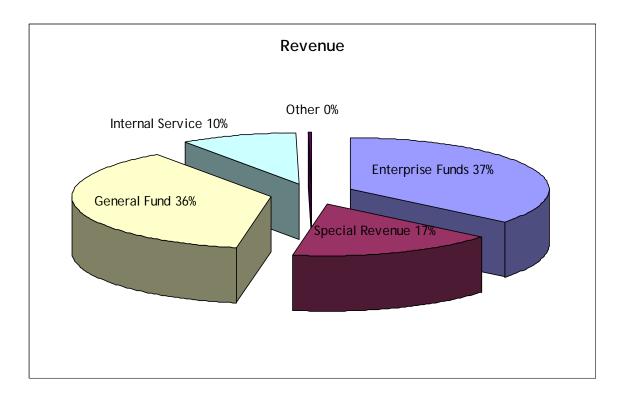

INTERNAL SERVICE FUNDS

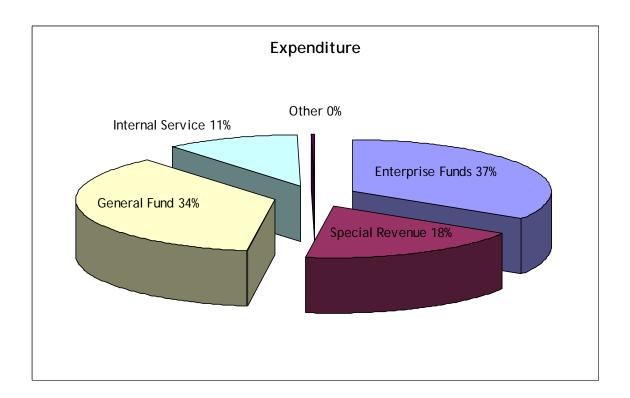

Internal Service Funds account for the financing of goods and services provided by one department to other departments of the County on a cost reimbursement basis. The largest internal service fund is the Medical Fund which administers the medical plans provided by the county.

FIDUCIARY FUNDS

Fiduciary Funds are used to account for assets held by the County in a trustee capacity. The Newman Lake Flood Control Fund accounts for dedicated monies used to control the level of Newman Lake and to improve the water quality.

The 911 Emergency Communications System provides the essential link between citizens and public safety agencies. Using one, easy-to-remember, three digit telephone number, the citizens of Spokane County can achieve quick access during an emergency to the necessary type of response units. 911 call receivers relay and/or transfer calls for help directly to the appropriate police, fire, or medical dispatcher via sophisticated telephone and computer interfaces. Call Receivers also staff the Spokane Crime Reporting Center, writing routine police reports.

As the essential link between citizens and emergency response agencies, we will be widely regarded as a critical member of the public safety team by providing excellent, responsive, professional service.

This office sends out bills through the Treasurer's office to all water users and all those that discharge wastes that could reach the aquifer.

The mission of the Commute Trip Reduction/Parking Program is to provide options and incentives for county employees to find alternatives to single occupancy vehicles as their method of commuting to work, in order for the county to meet the goals mandated by RCW 70.94.521-551. These incentives include: on-site sales of subsidized transit passes, preferred parking for carpools and van pools, subsidies for STA van pools, and encourage use of telecommuting and alternative work schedules. The program also strives to balance the use of available parking to meet the needs of the public and employees. Revenue is generated from fees paid by employees for monthly parking. No taxpayer money is used to administer these programs.

State statute authorized counties to support dispute resolution centers so that citizens would have a way to settle disputes outside of the court system. Spokane County has recognized two such dispute resolution centers. District Court collects a surcharge on all civil and small claim filings which is then distributed to the two agencies in support of their mediation efforts. The district Court's objective is to oversee the collection and distribution of the surcharge and to monitor the specific performance efforts of the two agencies at the request of the Board of County Commissioners.

Provide overall program, personnel, facilities, and equipment necessary for Spokane County's regional water reclamation facilities, including the new wastewater treatment plant at 1004 N Freya Street in Spokane (formerly called the Old Stockyards Site). The regional facilities will also include new pumping station on the North Valley Interceptor and the Spokane Valley Interceptor, which direct wastewater to the new plant via force main pipelines. Additionally, other related regional infrastructure will also be included that specifically support the facilities' construction an operation, such as a treated effluent (outfall) pipeline to the Spokane River.

Additional future components will include the biosolids management program, and may include reclaimed water pumping, storage, distribution, and/or supplemental treatment facilities supporting the regional water reclamation system.

After the construction is completed, all built assets will be retained in this fund, as well as the related debt. Ongoing operation and maintenance expenditures for the facilities constructed under this fund will also be expended in this fund.

This fund will allow the County to isolate the revenues and expenses to the regional water reclamation facilities, and maintain records for reports as required by multiple agencies.

The Sewer Construction Fund is the accounting fund for the County's Septic Tank Elimination Program (STEP). The STEP provides for the construction of sewers in developed areas of the Spokane Valley and North Spokane, and facilitates the connection of properties currently served by on-site sewage disposal systems to the regional collection and treatment system. This program is critical to the protection of the Spokane-Rathdrum Prairie Sole-Source Aquifer. In addition to the STEP, Fund 403 is the accounting fund for miscellaneous sewer projects constructed by the County, such as trunk extensions and sewers built in conjunction with road improvement projects.

The Spokane County Board of Commissioners established the first Tax Increment Financing District (TIF) on December 18, 2001. The purpose of this district is to develop an area that will attract biotech firms. The TIF is located in the western portion of the unincorporated area of the County near the Spokane International Airport. It consists of 671 acres of industrial land.

Prior to improvements made by the developer the value of the land was $29.9 million. The completed improvements include infrastructure of water, sewer, roads and sidewalks. Additional improvements include a bank and a hotel. After these improvements the value of this property increased to $55.2 million, resulting in a $25.2 million incremental value to the property. It is anticipated that future development will occur within the TIF that will increase the value of the land beyond the initial incremental value of $25.2 million.

Only local governments are allowed by law to participate in a TIF. The $102,231 in property tax revenue generated per year will be used to pay principal and interest on the tax increment bond issue of approximately $1.2 million. The bond proceeds will be used to purchase infrastructure from the developer. After the bond issue is retired the taxing district levies will be restored to 100%. The developer has agreed to provide a letter of credit to the County for four years equal to the principal and interest amount on the bonds in the event the incremental value is insufficient to retire the debt.

A legislative initiative was passed in 2005 in an effort to achieve adequate, stable and longterm funding of the trial courts. It created local trial court improvement accounts to be used to improve court operations, allowing local jurisdictions to test new innovations, efficiencies and pilot projects. These accounts are funded locally with the savings realized from state funding of district and elected municipal court judges' salaries.
